

OBJECTIVE: To gain industry experience utilizing my analytical skills in Accounting

EDUCATION: PHILADELPHIA UNIVERSITY, Philadelphia, PA
Master of Business Administration, December 2012
Coursework emphasis: Accounting

TEMPLE UNIVERSITY, Philadelphia, PA
Bachelor of Business Administration May 2010
Major: Accounting & Finance

QUALIFICATIONS:

Preparing Financial Statements
Preparing Journal Entries and Allocation
Preparing Account Analyses and Reconciliation
Processing Account Receivables and Payables
Strong knowledge of US GAAP

VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE:

“Volunteer”, Street Soccer Philly, Philadelphia, PA May 2014 – Present

- Assist the homeless in rebuilding their lives and finding housing and jobs through the discipline and mentoring of street soccer.
- Communicate with homeless about problems they are facing inside and outside of the field.

RELATED PROJECT:

“Financial Policy and Planning”, Fall, 2011 PHILADELPHIA UNIVERSITY

- Researched to find industry reaction to appreciation of Yen and its impact on the some of the biggest Japanese corporations’ financial statements.
- Gained knowledge in how much fluctuation in the currency can have an effect on international corporations in this integrated financial market.

“Seminar in Financial Management”, Fall, 2009 TEMPLE UNIVERSITY

- Delivered a paper and presentation on the financial standing of a company.
- Analyzed the company using SWOT analysis, WACC calculation and ratios trends of Financial Statements.

ACTIVITIES & AWARDS:

Completed, Business Environment and Concepts Part of CPA Exam, 2013
CPA Exam Candidate Affiliate Member of AICPA

SKILLS & LANGUAGES:

- MS Word, PowerPoint, Excel
- Experience with SAP Program
- Korean – fluency